

Many Shapes

What You Need:

- Markers or Crayons
- Glue
- Paper

What You Do:

- Give your children as many different shapes as you can think of (or have them cut them out) Then explain to them how shapes can go together to make different objects and have them be creative to make a wonderful design. They can then draw on the details.

