

Red White and Blue Snacks

Firework Cake!!!!!!

For a fantastic creative treat, Make regular yellow cake in a big rectangular pan, follow the directions on the box. Then with a disk shaped cookie cutter, cut the cake into about 5 disks. Mix Red Pop Rocks into red icing or Vanilla with red food coloring. Then place the disks on top of one another with a layer of cool whip in between each. Surround the sides and top with your "popping" icing and add a sparkler to the top before serving. This will represent a fireworks fuse!

Everyone will be amazed to see such a sparkling desert!

Dip Pretzel Rods half way in white chocolate (or coat with white frosting). Then, before the chocolate sets, roll the pretzel rod in red and blue sprinkles. Presto, you have edible sparklers.

Red, white, and blue yogurt cups.

They need vanilla yogurt, strawberries, and blueberries. Give each child a cup of vanilla yogurt and have them mix in strawberries and blueberries and enjoy. Watch out for allergies.

Special Breakfast Recipe

choose: pancakes or waffles

Frosty Fireworks

Allow children to freeze their favorite blue & red juice in ice cube trays.
Place frozen colored cubes in cups & add clear soda (7up or sprite) and drink the 'fireworks' result!!

Take a large washed and dried strawberry and hold it by the stem. Dip the strawberry half way in melted white chocolate. Then quickly dip in blue sprinkles for a delicious patriotic treat!!
