

White Marble Painting

Cut a piece of dark construction paper to fit in the bottom of a pie tin, tray, or similar container. Put a couple of drops of white tempera paint on the paper. Have your child gently roll a couple of marbles in the bottom of the pan (through the paint drops) to create the painting. Talk about the different patterns, color contrasts, and designs that are created.

