

Mixing Yellow and Red Paint Activity

Paint a child's hand with yellow tempera paint.

Make a hand print on a long sheet of paper.

Put a plus sign. Then paint the other hand with red and make another hand print. Put an equal sign. Add more of each color to each hand and have them rub their hands together to see what color they get. Make 2 handprints of the new color.