Groundhog Facts

The groundhog is also known as a woodchuck. The groundhog is a hibernating mammal. The groundhog is native to North America. It goes into hibernation in the winter.

A groundhog is a rodent that is related to squirrels. The groundhog eats seeds, roots and plants. The groundhog lives in a burrow.

Groundhog Day Cupcakes

12 cupcakes
tub of chocolate frosting 24 vanilla wafers
24 peanut butter chips
12 chocolate chip
24 miniature marshmallows

Frost the cupcake add two vanilla wafers to create ears add 2 peanut butter chips for eyes add 1 chocolate chip for the nose add two marshmallows for teeth