

LEMONS AND LIMES

Place yellow and green paint on paper plates for your children.

Cut limes and lemons in half. Squeeze out their juice and measure how much comes out.

Give your children large pieces of white paper and the fruit halves.

Show them how to dip the lemons in yellow paint and the limes in the green paint, and then make fruit prints on their papers.

