

Thirsty Plants

Talk about how a farmer not only has to take care of the animals, but also the plants and trees.

To show children how plants drink water, put celery (with leaves) into a clear glass and fill it halfway with water.

Put food coloring into the water. The celery will turn the color of the food coloring within a couple of days.

Do you have plants at home or a garden that you help take care of?

